My Dear Sir

Please pardon my delay, in answer to your Esteemed favor of 20th.
I have just passed the most trying ordeal of my life - & am not yet sure of myself My dear Mr. who has been my partner in joy & sorrow for forty four years, has been called over the Great Divide by that dread disaster, pneumonia No one can understand such a loss. Except him or her, who has had a like experience. I shall be glad to meet you, and some day I'll drop in Yours
Potter

Mr. F. Wayland Potter
Sixth & Bailey Streets
Camden, N.J.

Dear Mr. Potter:

I was indeed sorry to read of the sad news contained in your letter of February 27th, and I beg that you will accept my very sincere sympathy. I realize how so sudden a loss must add much to your sorrow, and I feel very deeply for you in your bereavement.

Sincerely yours,

HW/E
